Frequently Asked Questions

What is the MCCSC Health & Wellness Center?

The Health & Wellness Center was created for the exclusive use of employees (including Retirees) and dependents of MCCSC who are covered under the MCCSC-sponsored medical plan. The Health & Wellness Center will be staffed by a Family Practice physician who can evaluate and treat your entire family for a wide variety of ailments.

Why is MCCSC creating this Health & Wellness Center?

MCCSC is extremely concerned about the health and well-being of employees and their families. In fact, one of the goals is to support efforts to promote wellness, physical fitness, and healthy eating habits. The Health & Wellness Center is designed to combine a variety of healthcare resources into one convenient location.

What services will be offered at the Health & Wellness Center?

The Center will offer all of the services provided in a typical physician office including: physician evaluation and treatment for everything from the flu to complicated chronic diseases, DOT physical examinations, immunizations and on-site lab services.

You will also find many extras not found in a typical physician office such as:

- NO COST for office visits
- Certain prescription medications provided at no charge for an initial thirty-day supply
- Appointments scheduled in twenty-minute intervals to allow you plenty of time to get all of your questions answered
- On-line self-scheduling of appointments including the availability of same day visits
- A variety of wellness coaching and health promotion activities will be offered at the Center

Where is the Health & Wellness Center located?

The Health & Wellness Center is located at 524 North Fairview Street. This location is two blocks north of Fairview Elementary School and is located directly across from the Ninth Street Park.

How do I schedule an appointment?

Appointments may be self-scheduled via the internet. Log-on to www.ecommunity.com/clinicmccsc. If you experience any difficulty trying to schedule via the internet or if you would simply prefer to schedule an appointment over the phone, call the Health & Wellness Center at 812-330-7837 and staff will be happy to assist you.

Can I schedule appointments for my family?

Yes. If your family members are covered under the MCCSC-sponsored medical plan, appointments can be scheduled for them as well. Once the employee logs in to www.ecommunity.com/clinicmccsc they would need to click on "schedule an appointment" and then "add/manage dependents".

Will there be anything else offered at the clinic?

The Health & Wellness Center will promote total wellness including: physical fitness, healthy eating habits and wellness. More information about programs and materials will be available in the coming months.
