This will happen within the first two weeks of school. Self-contained teachers will communicate with parents a daily schedule when their students are not participating in general education classes. These are schedules created with the understanding that some families will not be able to participate in the live whole group or small group sessions. Pre-recorded lessons and mini lessons will also be provided. It could be adjusted based on the needs of our students and their specific grade. We will try to keep to the live times that are currently scheduled.
