Second Grade School Work Checklist for Friday 3/28/20

Reading
- Read and reread today’s poem. Highlight or circle rhyming words.
- Independent reading for 20 minutes.
- Complete the reading passage and comprehension questions. (It is ok if you need help reading it!)

Writing
- Decorate the cover of “That Time I Was Homeschooled Writing Notebook”
- Write a journal entry about something you have done since school let out.

Math
- Complete today’s morning math.
- Decorate the cover of My Math Autobiography.
- Complete the Window Fraction page of My Math Autobiography. (Save the other pages for when we assign them next week.
- Complete the Addition Practice Sheet.

Science
- Go outside and find signs of spring. Draw or paint a picture of what you see. If it is ok with your family, hang your picture in a front window so people passing by can see your cheerful work.

(We will start a weather unit next week.)

Social Studies
- Complete the continents and oceans map.

Health
- Read or have someone read the breathing directions and complete the breathing exercise.
Smelly Locker!

(To the tune of "Frère Jacques")

Smelly locker!
Smelly locker!
Poor hygiene!
Foul and mean!
Meant to do it sooner.
Is this a glove or tuna?
Time to clean!
Time to clean!

Smelly locker!
Smelly locker!
Never seen
meat so green!
Stand back—it's aroma
could put you in a coma!
Time to clean!
Time to clean!

Smelly locker!
Smelly locker!
Real bad scene!
Hurts my spleen!
Shoulda got permission to put my dead pet fish in.
Time to clean!
Time to clean!

Smelly locker!
Smelly locker!
See my clothes
decompose!
Though I'm filled with sorrow,
school is closed tomorrow.
I suppose ye'll bulldoze!
Long ago, three rascals tricked Simon out of his family’s only cow. The very next day, Simon and his Mama set out to teach those rascals a lesson. In the morning, Mama walked to town to set the stage. Then she returned home, gave Simon a tarnished old ring, and told him exactly what to do.

Simon set out for town that afternoon. He arrived at an inn where the three rascals were planning their next heist. Simon joined them and offered to buy their drinks. When it came time to pay the bill, Simon held up his hand and slowly twisted the ring on his finger three times. Then he asked the innkeeper, “How much do I owe?”

“How much do I owe?” said the innkeeper. “It’s taken care of.”

The three rascals looked at one another, but said nothing. They walked with Simon to the next inn, where Simon offered to treat them to a fine dinner. After dinner, Simon held up his hand and slowly twisted the ring three times. The innkeeper came to the table, thanked them for coming and announced that the bill was covered.

The rascals asked Simon where the ring had come from. Simon replied, “Mama found it buried in the sand. She said it is worth a fortune.”

“We’ll give you one hundred silver coins for it!” said the first rascal.

“It’s a deal,” Simon replied. He took the coins straight home.

Mama was pleased. “Now we have one hundred silver coins,” she said. “Fifty coins will pay for the cow. Twenty coins will cover the food and drink and the final thirty coins will teach those rascals a lesson.” The three rascals never bothered Simon again.

SUN BREATHING

We are going to practice sun breathing. You are going to inhale through your nose and stretch your arms straight over your head with your palms facing each other. You will hold your breath for one count then exhale slowly through your nose, as you lower your arms slowly.

Feel your feet flat on the floor and straighten your back.

Close your eyes.

Relax your shoulders back and down.

Rest your hands in your lap.

Inhale through your nose and stretch your arms straight over your head with your palms facing each other, hold, slowly lower your arms and exhale.

Inhale stretch up, hold, exhale, arms down.

Inhale stretch up, hold, exhale, arms down.

Inhale stretch up, hold, exhale, arms down.

Rest your hands in your lap.

Breathe normally and relax.

Sit perfectly still.

Feel the air moving in and out of your nose.

[Wait 5 seconds]

Now, take a deep breath in, hold and exhale slowly.

Notice how you feel.

[Wait 10 seconds]

Slowly open your eyes.
