THINK SKILL OF THE WEEK
“I am Sorry”

“Making an Apology”.
Ask your children if they know the steps:
1) Look at the person.
   (make eye contact and give full attention)
2) Use a serious, sincere voice (speak up to be heard; no sarcasm in tone)
3) Say “I’m sorry for...” or “I want to apologize for...” (be specific)
4) Explain how you will do better in the future. (set a goal for yourself)
5) Say “Thanks for listening.”(be sincere and end on a positive note)

School will be closed for Holiday Break beginning Friday, December 18th through Sunday, January 3rd.

Happy Holidays!

Holiday cards made by our talented Fairview Students are on sale now! The cards are in packets of twelve for $10.00. Proceeds will go to the Fairview PTO and will be used for yearbooks costs.

For Meal Distribution Information and Ordering Instructions, visit the MCCSC Website and go to the Lunch Menu Page.

Masks help keep everyone safe!
The Monroe County Community School Corporation will be on Phase Red through the holiday break. All students will be online with their current teachers. The metrics committee will meet over the break and make a determination on which Learning Phase will be in place on January 4th.

DR. REYNOLDS ARTIST’S CORNER

This week, we feature yarn art created by Mrs. Chambers’ First Grade Class which will be incorporated into a wall hanging and a drawing of a fox created by Sixth grade student Akayla Sears.
